

WHO Drug Information

---

Contents

General Policy Issues

Dangers of purchasing medical products through the Internet

Personal Perspectives

Fifty years of drug regulation: solid accomplishments and an important future

Reports on Individual Drugs

Hormone replacement therapy and breast cancer

Mefloquine effectiveness impaired by high withdrawal rates

Zopiclone and zolpidem hypnotics and drug dependence

General Information

Cardiovascular disease and hormonal contraceptives: latest results

Current availability of vaccines for diarrhoeal diseases and typhoid

Regulatory Matters

Troglitazone and liver injury

Phenolphthalein products withdrawn

Serotonin re-uptake inhibitors and neonatal withdrawal symptoms

Raloxifene for the prevention of osteoporosis

Mibefradil: low heart rate and severe interactions reported

New anti-obesity drug approved

Scopolamine patch to prevent peri-operative nausea	15
Pemoline withdrawn	15
Melatonin on prescription only	16
Chlormezanone withdrawn	16
1 Alcohol warning on over-the-counter pain medications	16
Nefazodone: adverse reaction reports	16
Daclizumab: first monoclonal antibody against transplant rejection	16
3 Reboxetine not for use in elderly	17
Counterfeit antimalarials detected	17

ATC/DDD Classification (final)

6 18

ATC/DDD Classification (temporary)

7 20

Essential Drugs

9 WHO Model List (revised in December 1997) 22

Recent Publications and Documents

10 Extended release oral dosage forms: guidance for applicants	36
13 United Nations Consolidated List	36
13 Manual on quality assurance	36
14 Medicinal claims and food products	37
14 Paediatric prescribing information	37

Recommended International

15 Nonproprietary Names: List 39 39

Printed in Malta
97/11900 - Interprint - 5300