

WHO Drug Information

---

Contents

General Policy Topics

Fake drugs: a scourge on the system 127

Reports on Individual Drugs

Eclampsia: magnesium sulfate favoured in anticonvulsant therapy 130

Lymphatic filariasis: an eradicable disease 132

More on malaria vaccination 135

Cerebral cysticercosis: what can be expected of cysticidal drugs? 135

Influenza: the rationale for routine vaccination of the elderly 138

Vitamin A supplementation and measles vaccination 139

Vitamin A status: is dietary replacement practicable? 141

Ophthalmia neonatorum: opportunity for improved prophylaxis 141

Ivermectin: an effective acaricide 144

Hepatitis B vaccination in infancy: evidence of long-term efficacy 145

General Information

"Natural" medicines: a Pandora's box 147

Homoeopathy put to test 149

Medical records and medical research 150

Malaria: practicable approaches to prevention remain elusive 151

Traditional eye medicines: a note of concern 152

Regulatory Matters

Informed consent in emergency situations 154

Natural remedies: requirements for registration 155

Starting materials: proposals for a regulatory framework 156

Medication errors: a new reporting initiative 157

Aminosalicylates and blood dyscrasias 158

Antimicrobial susceptibility tests: unreliable performance 158

Coumarin: a strong association with hepatotoxicity 159

Clomifene and ovarian cancer 159

Iron-containing drugs and supplements: accidental poisoning 159

Quinolones and tendon rupture 160

Tocolytics and pulmonary oedema 160

Selegiline and antidepressants: risk of serious interactions 160

Simvastatin and endocrine effects in men 161

Tacrolimus and cardiomyopathy 161

Trimethoprim/sulfamethoxazole: restrictions of previously-approved indications 161

Macrolide antibiotics interfere with response to warfarin 162

Cyproterone acetate: further restrictive action 162

Spermicide contraceptives: do they really work? 163

Towards one strength of insulin (IU100) 163

Recent Publications

Tropical disease research: twenty years of collaboration 164

Recommended International

Nonproprietary Names: List 35 165