

CONFERENCE OF EXPERTS ON THE RATIONAL USE OF DRUGS

25 - 29 November 1985, Nairobi, Kenya

WORKING PAPERS

Agenda item

- paper RI The rational use of drugs: review of major issues
- paper IC The rational use of drugs: issues suggested for consideration

1. SOURCES, TYPES AND AVAILABILITY OF INFORMATION

- paper 1.1 Sources, types and availability of information concerning the use of drugs
- paper 1.2 The role of WHO in the transfer and dissemination of information on drug quality, safety and efficacy

2. DRUG CONTROL AND DISTRIBUTION

- paper 2.1 Drug marketing
- paper 2.2 Review of national health legislation on drug marketing
- paper 2.3 Pharmaceutical distribution, prescription and use
- paper 2.4 National case studies
 - 2.4.1 Drug control and distribution in Bangladesh
 - 2.4.2 Drug control and distribution in Hungary
 - 2.4.3 New drug supplies management system for rural health facilities in Kenya
 - 2.4.4 The rational use of drugs in Mexico
 - 2.4.5 Drug control and distribution in Norway
 - 2.4.6 Control and distribution of human medicines in the United Kingdom
- paper 2.5 The role of the WHO Action Programme on Essential Drugs and Vaccines
- paper 2.6 The WHO Certification Scheme on the quality of pharmaceutical products moving in international commerce

3. TRAINING, EDUCATION AND OTHER INFORMATION TRANSFER

- paper 3.1 Education and training for the rational use of drugs by health personnel and the public
- paper 3.2 WHO's role in training, education and other information transfer