

WORLD HEALTH ORGANIZATION

EXPERT COMMITTEE ON MALARIA

Sixth Session

21-29 June 1956

(probably in Athens, Greece)

ORGANISATION MONDIALE
DE LA SANTÉ

WHO/Mal/152 ✓

6 December 1955

ORIGINAL: ENGLISH

PROVISIONAL AGENDA

I. MALARIA ERADICATION

1. Malaria Eradication: Definition
2. Planning of Malaria Eradication Programmes: Legislation; Organization of the National Malaria Service; Personnel; Use of voluntary labour
 - 2.1 Phase of attack
 - 2.2 Phase of consolidation
 - 2.3 Phase of maintenance
3. Techniques of survey and of assessment in malaria eradication programmes
4. Eradication Techniques
 - 4.1 Measures against the vector
 - 4.1.1 against adult vectors
 - 4.1.2 against larvae
 - 4.2 Measures against the malaria parasites: drugs
 - 4.2.1 Pinotti's method (medicated cooking salt)
 - 4.2.2 Problems to be solved in connexion with the use of drugs for eradication programmes
5. Surveillance Techniques
 - 5.1 Within the country
 - 5.1.1 when rural health or medical services are well developed
 - 5.1.2 when rural health or medical services are inadequate
 - 5.2 At country or area borders.

6. Malaria Eradication and Insecticide Resistance in Anopheles

6.1 Present status of resistance in anophelines

6.2 Problems to be solved and degree of their urgency for the malaria eradication programmes

6.2.1 possible danger of chlorinated hydrocarbon insecticides used as larvicides for the control of anophelines or of other mosquitos

6.2.2 possible danger of chlorinated hydrocarbon insecticides used for agricultural purposes

6.2.3 field testing of susceptibility of anopheles

7. Other special problems: Nomadism

- II. INTER-COUNTRY MALARIA ERADICATION PROGRAMMES FOR THE COUNTRIES EAST OF THE MEDITERRANEAN
- III. AWARD OF THE DARLING PRIZE
- IV. TECHNICAL RECOMMENDATIONS OF THE SECOND AFRICAN MALARIA CONFERENCE
- V. TECHNICAL RECOMMENDATIONS OF THE INTER-REGIONAL CONFERENCE ON MALARIA FOR THE EASTERN MEDITERRANEAN AND EUROPEAN REGIONS
- VI. OTHERS