

WORLD HEALTH ORGANIZATION

EXPERT COMMITTEE ON MALARIA

Sixth Session
Athens, Greece, 21-29 June 1956ORGANISATION MONDIALE
DE LA SANTÉWHO/Mal/152 Rev.1 ✓
9 May 1956

ORIGINAL: ENGLISH

PROVISIONAL AGENDA

- i. Introductory Statement
  - ii. Election of Chairman, Vice-Chairman and Rapporteurs
  - iii. Adoption of the Agenda
-

I. MALARIA ERADICATION

1. Malaria Eradication: definition, criteria and terminology
2. Planning of Malaria Eradication Programmes: legislation, budget, organization of the National Malaria Service, personnel, use of voluntary labour
  - 2.1 Phase of attack
  - 2.2 Phase of consolidation
  - 2.3 Phase of maintenance
3. Techniques of survey and of assessment in malaria eradication programmes
4. Eradication Techniques
  - 4.1 Measures against the vector
    - 4.1.1 against adult vectors: including problems in residual spraying techniques related to human and vector bionomics and to the insecticides
    - 4.1.2 against larvae
  - 4.2 Measures against the malaria parasites: drugs
    - 4.2.1 Pinotti's method (medicated common salt)
    - 4.2.2 Problems to be solved in connexion with the use of drugs for eradication programmes

5. Surveillance Techniques

5.1 Within the country

5.1.1 When rural health or medical services are well developed

5.1.2 When rural health or medical services are inadequate

5.2 At country or area borders

6. Malaria Eradication and Insecticide Resistance in Anopheles

6.1 Present status of resistance in anophelines

6.2 Problems to be solved and degree of their urgency for the malaria eradication programmes

6.2.1 Possible danger of chlorinated hydrocarbon insecticides used as larvicides for the control of anophelines or of other mosquitos

6.2.2 Possible danger of chlorinated hydrocarbon insecticides used for agricultural purposes

6.2.3 Field testing of susceptibility of Anopheles

7. Other special problems: Nomadism

- II. INTER-COUNTRY MALARIA ERADICATION PROGRAMMES FOR THE COUNTRIES EAST OF THE MEDITERRANEAN
- III. TECHNICAL RECOMMENDATIONS OF THE SECOND AFRICAN MALARIA CONFERENCE
- IV. TECHNICAL RECOMMENDATIONS OF THE INTER-REGIONAL CONFERENCE ON MALARIA FOR THE EASTERN MEDITERRANEAN AND EUROPEAN REGIONS
- V. SUGGESTED AGENDA FOR THE STUDY GROUP ON INTERNATIONAL PROTECTION AGAINST MALARIA
- VI. FIFTH AWARD OF THE DARLING MEDAL AND PRIZE
- VII. OTHERS